Stuart KATZOFF

President & Managing Partner

Stuart Katzoff is President of Manhattan Capital LLC, a holding company based in New York City involved in real estate development, investment management and professional sports ownership. The company is currently developing several residential, commercial and retail projects.

As president and managing member of Manhattan Capital Sports LLC and SK Baseball LLC, Mr. Katzoff partnered with Jerry Katzoff and Herbert Simon to purchase the Reno Bighorns in February 2009.

Prior to acquiring the NBA Development League franchise, Mr. Katzoff spearheaded the relocation of the Tucson Sidewinders, a Pacific Coast League Triple-A professional baseball franchise, to Reno, Nev. In their inaugural season, the Reno Aces drew more than 466,000 fans for the club's 72-game home schedule at Aces Ballpark. The facility has been widely recognized as one of the premier ballparks in all of Minor League Baseball.

Designated the master developer of downtown Reno, Mr. Katzoff is now leading the development of a $100 million mixed use retail, office and entertainment district adjacent to Aces Ballpark.

In October 2009, Mr. Katzoff was named by the Reno Gazette-Journal and the Reno Tahoe Young Professionals Network as a member of the "Twenty Under 40" group, which recognizes the city's premier business leaders under the age of 40.

Prior to Manhattan Capital, Mr. Katzoff was a partner in a derivative consulting business. He started his career in equity sales at Lehman Brothers, handling middle market, $30 million to $6 billion institutional accounts and managing assets /money for high-net-worth individuals. Before joining Lehman Brothers, Mr. Katzoff worked as an attorney for criminal defense attorney F. Lee Bailey in Palm Beach, Fla.

Mr. Katzoff attended Tulane University. He earned a BA in Economics from Tulane as well as a JD from Tulane University Law School.

Herb SIMON

Partner

Herbert Simon is Chairman Emeritus of the Board of Indianapolis-based Simon Property Group, Inc., a member of the S&P 500.

Mr. Simon was born in Brooklyn, N.Y., educated at City College of New York and earned a B.B.A. degree in business.

His interests beyond real estate include ownership of the NBA franchise Indiana Pacers. He has served as Chairman of the NBA Board of Governors on which he continues to serve.

A supporter of professional, environmental and community groups, Mr. Simon has served on the board of directors of numerous community and civic organizations.

Jerry KATZOFF

Partner

Through various companies, Jerry Katzoff has engaged in acquisition, development, construction, renovation and management of commercial real estate and resort properties for over three decades.

Mr. Katzoff earned a law degree from Temple University School of Law and has served as Chairman and CEO of the companies he owned.

He began his real estate development career with condominium conversions and co-established Philadelphia-based Dover Historic Properties real estate company where he served as president. Dover successfully focused on rehabilitating historic properties. The company made its mark turning historically certified buildings into viable residential, commercial and mixed-use developments.

In 2002, Mr. Katzoff and his son Stuart partnered with founders of New York City's Il Mulino restaurant and another experienced restaurateur to expand the successful Il Mulino concept by opening Il Mulino branded restaurants and a retail product line.

They have successfully opened additional Il Mulino locations in Aspen, Atlanta, Atlantic City, Long Island, Chicago, Miami, Washington DC, Las Vegas, Tokyo, Orlando and Puerto Rico. Il Mulino products, foods, and accessories are now successfully marketed through high-end specialty food stores and the Il Mulino company.
